

English Curriculum Map (Year 9)

[2022 – 2023]

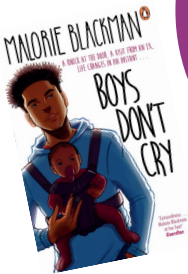

Exam: Prose Reading and Non-Fiction Writing

Exam: 20th C Prose Reading and Non-Fiction Writing

21st Century Literature – Novel study

Boys Don't Cry

Literary study of a 20th C novel. Developing extract and whole text essay writing skills with thematic and character focus

20th Century Social Historical Context Through Literature

Exploration of key social historical events throughout the 20th C documented through literary and non-fiction texts

Language Through Literature

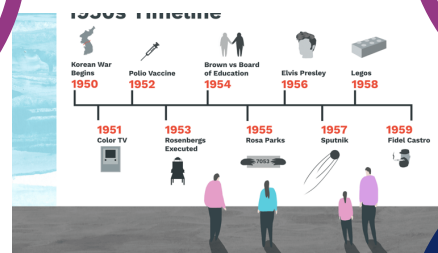

Lord of the Flies & Stone Cold

Shared reading for pleasure.

Development of reading and writing skills, both creative and non-fiction

Year 9 – Term 3

Year 9 – Term 2

Victorious Voices

Analysis and development of personal response to unseen poetry from the 19th-21st C.

Exploration of how poetry is used as a form of personal expression

Global Issues Explored Through English

How 19th, 20th and 21st C global issues and ideas are expressed through poetry, prose and non-fiction texts

Year 9 – Term 1

Assert Your Opinion

Non-Fiction Writing and Spoken Language

Exploration and application of authorial intent. Focus on topic of choice to build a collection of associated non-fiction writing.

Presentation of speech

